Lorraine Reinhardt - Vocal

Lorraine Reinhardt is a graduate with distinction of the University of Saskatchewan Bachelor of Music program. While there she was a student of Dorothy Howard and Greta Clark. Since moving to Vancouver, Lorraine has studied with Arlene McIntyre and has participated in various workshops and master classes, most frequently sponsored by the National Association of Teachers of Singing (NATS). She is a past winner of the Provincial Senior Voice class of the BC Kiwanis Festival.

Lorraine has sung with the Vancouver Chamber Choir, one of Canada's professional choirs, since 1988. She was a founding member of Elektra Women's Choir and sang with them until 1999. She has often been heard as soloist with these choirs both in concert and on recordings. She has sung throughout Canada and on the CBC, as well as internationally.

Lorraine has worked with such conductors as John Aldis, Tonu Kaljuste, Georg Tintner, Frieder Bernius, Helmut Rilling and David LaMarche, as well as Jon Washburn, Diane Loomer and Morna Edmundson. She is an oratorio soloist and recitalist.

Lorraine has been teaching in her private studio since 1977, and was on the voice faculty of the Music Department of Kwantlen University College in Langley from its opening in 1993 until 2007. She was voice coach to Chor Leoni Men's Choir until 2010. She is currently a member of NATS and is active in the Vancouver Chapter. In July 2004 she was appointed as District Governor for NATS in British Columbia, a position she held for four years.

Lorraine has directed choirs of many descriptions from high school concert to Broadway musical chorus, and church choirs of all ages and sizes. She is in demand to lead workshops on singing technique, church choir repertoire and choral technique. She has adjudicated festivals throughout BC.

PIANO

Stephen Smith - Piano

Listeners, critics, and audience members know Stephen Smith as "a sensitive and dynamic performer" with a "highly poetic touch" and "superb musicianship which illuminates everything he plays." Simon Carrington (one of the founding members of the Kings Singers) has called Stephen "a magnificent pianist," saying, "It's a privilege to hear such beautiful playing!" And renowned pianist Jane Coop has called her former student "an extremely intelligent and perceptive musician who has great facility and strength in his technique. His performances are fascinating programmatically and intriguing musically. He is dynamic and exciting on stage, with a compelling, persuasive temperament."

Stephen grew up in rural Nova Scotia, where he sang and played the piano from an early age. After initial studies in his home province in both piano and organ, he attended the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester, England. While there, he participated in national and international competitions and won numerous awards and distinctions. Since 1990, Stephen has lived in Vancouver, obtaining his doctoral degree in piano performance from the University of British Columbia, and contributing to the musical life of the city as a performer, teacher, arranger and composer.

Central to Stephen's career is his long-standing relationship with some of the city's finest choral groups. He has accompanied the Vancouver Men's Chorus since 1991, and has directed their a cappella ensemble, Synergy, since 1998. Following 10 years as assistant conductor of the Vancouver Bach Choir, he currently acts as its pianist. He has accompanied Elektra women's choir since 2001 and, in addition, he is a frequent collaborator with Chor Leoni, the Vancouver Chamber Choir, and many other ensembles.

Stephen's work as both accompanist and composer can be heard on dozens of CDs in commercial release, and his 1997 solo CD of classical piano miniatures, entitled Kaleidoscope, is currently available on iTunes.
